

Greetings from the Families of GBYO!

We look forward to getting to know you and your musician(s) better this year! We have multiple opportunities for parents to meet others, to get to know your children's fellow musicians and teachers and to help with the continued success of GBYO. Please take a moment to review the activities below and indicate your interest by checking the boxes. As a small nonprofit organization, we rely on volunteers to help our programs run smoothly!

- Program Ad Sales (follow up with 2015 advertisers, solicit new supporters)
- Donnelly Dash (solicit sponsors, race day logistics)
- Barnes & Noble In-Store Fundraiser (spread the word, work on sale day)
- 55th Anniversary Benefit (help to coordinate and promote special event)
- Concert Volunteers (help at box office and will call on concert days)
- Snack Volunteers (serve snacks, recruit and coordinate volunteers)
- Spiritwear (sales on concert days and select rehearsal days)
- Open Rehearsals (help give tours, welcome new families)
- Social Activities (retreats, student sounding board, meet the conductors, holiday party, alumni outreach, yearbook, senior concert, community building)
- Teacher Outreach (recognize private teachers, coordinate school visits)
- Finance (assist with budget and treasury issues)
- Technology (website, records retention, social media, directory)
- 2018 International Trip (help coordinate with travel company/families, logistics)
- Nominating Committee (board development, recruiting)
- Other Strengths or Interests? Let us know what talents you might have to share or what ideas you might have to implement! We welcome your thoughts here:

Parent Name(s): _____ Musicians: _____

Email Address: _____ Best Phone: _____

Thank you for your willingness to help GBYO! We look forward to getting to know you better this year. Please contact us at any time with questions or suggestions! Katie Noonan, President, at president@gbyo.org; Gretchen Patterson, Vice President at 1stvp@gbyo.org; or Beth Ulman, Executive Director at gbyo@gbyo.org.